REMEMBER WHEN!

Former Judge HERBERT TATE lies in Clara Maas Hospital following a heart attack. He must have been visiting his son, HERBERT TATE, Esq., as the elder Tate resides in Oak Bluff, Mass., where his wife is also ill. At the recent black tie victory ball by the East Orange JOHN HATCHER ticket, held in Quality Inn, three women lost their expensive fur coats when someone robbed the checkroom. the checkroom insurance is reported no more than $500 per coat, but the missing coats were valued far above that figure.

Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity hosted their annual dinner dance at The Pines. In hospital recently was After Hours writer H.B. Webber and many sent get well cards or visited, including CHARLIE SMITH, IRENE YEARWOOD, BARBARA DELANEY, FANNIE BROWN, GLADYS FREDERICK, TINY PRINCE, the Alpha Phi Alpha frat members, CAROL XCOLE, the Dr. E. ALBERT FORSYTHES, CELIA T. GARNETT, LACEY T. MASSIE, JOANE MANDERVILLE, CORDELIA and VERNER HENRY, and others.

Newark City Council debated naming the corner of New St. and University Ave. after NELSON and WINNIE MANDELLA, the South African hero and heroine. The corner will be called Mandella Plaza.

Of interest was EARL HARRIS' declaration that in the current Newark City election he is allied with popular Mayor KENNETH GIBSON, whom he fought in the last city mayoralty war. That contest is well remembered as bitter and almost lethal. But Harris went into business, became active in the Gov. TOM KEAN drive and survived politically. Now, assuming Gibson wins again, Harris will be in line for a top appointment.

The International Youth Organization sponsors a 2 hour black history story the past January 29, its director, JAMES WALLACE, announced.

GEORGE JENKINS has been named manager of Weichert Realty's Morristown East office... The usual crowd attended the meeting of the LARRIE W. STALKS Association Feb. 5, where details were given of 'A Decade of Service,' a production by the Association.

Councilman DONALD TUCKER cited five reasons for teenage pregnancy---inadequate welfare system, economic deprivation, lack of adequate housing, racism, and chronic unemployment of black youth.

EULICE 'HONEY' WARD, Dem. chairman of Central Ward, clashed with Dr. R.D. FIELDS, the mystery financier of political campaigns at Larrie W. Stalks' '10 years of service' banquet at Scott's Manor Thursday night. The subject matter of their verbal battle cannot be printed here, but each castigated the other. Fields was the angel of the winning East Orange JOHN HATCHER ticket, has contributed to the mayoral re-election drive of Mayor KENNETH GIBSON, and Thursday joined the throng celebrating Larrie's ten years and more of civic service.

Present also was her son STEPHEN STALKS, who has filed for Newark City Council race, both as Councilman at large and as Central Ward Councilman, but will have to make a choice which road to take. All remember the vivid race in the past for Council and how he almost won.

The torch and fire hose

Households were shattered with chain and fetter
In the wings he waited to put it together.

Black and Whites strove,
the accepted way locked in combat by night and by day
Visions and dreams, tar,
rail and feather
Oh! how he was needed to
put it together

When program and future

Yes, lost dreams and hope out the the window flew Shouts of the poor, yell
for life that's better
Prayer got answered, He put it together.

Success

Success is speaking words of praise,
In cheering other people's ways,
In doing just the best you can,
With every task and every plan,
It's silence when your speech would hurt,
Politeness when your neighbor's curt,
It's loyalty when duty calls,
It's courage when disaster falls,
It's patience when the hours are long,
It's found in laughter and in song,
It's in the silent time of prayer,
In happiness and in despair,
In all of life and nothing less,
We find the thing we call Success.

Stamp honors Ellington

The works of Duke Ellington, one of America's greatest jazz musicians and band-leaders, will be commemorated on April 29 during a ceremony in the lobby of the main Newark Post Office.

Postmaster Joseph Benucci and Mayor Kenneth Gibson will preside at a First Day Issue ceremony and present Mercer Ellington, son of the late musician and a musician-composer in his own right, with a plaque bearing a new Duke Ellington stamp.

The ceremony at 9 a.m. will precede a similar ceremony to be held in New York City.

The Duke Ellington stamp will be released for sale in Washington, D.C., where Ellington was born, Newark and New York on that date.

A stamp commemorating the work of Ellington in American music was first proposed by the Duke Ellington Society, which has its headquarters in New York.

Frank Santoro, public affairs spokesman for the Newark Post Office, said New Jersey's largest city was selected for the ceremony "in recognition of the many fine musicians who have come from the Newark area."

"We felt it would be fitting for Newark to share in the tribute to Duke Ellington and we know he had many friends in the city and throughout New Jersey," Santoro said.

NATIONAL CHILD WATCH CAMPAIGN

—How To Protect Your Child—

1. Teach your child your telephone number, area code, your full address, and how to use the telephone to call home, a law enforcement officer, or dial "0" for operator in an emergency.
2. Keep an up-to-date file on your child, include a recent photograph and a physical description.
3. Make a mental note of the clothes your child wears EVERYDAY. Avoid putting your child's name on clothes or books. Children may respond to a stranger who calls them by name.
4. Be sure your child knows what to do in case you become separated. If separated while shopping, your child should not look for you, but go immediately to the nearest clerk and ask for assistance.
5. Choose a secret code word to use in case of an emergency. Your child should never go with anyone who does not know the code word.
6. Have a set of your child's footprints or fingerprints taken by local law enforcement or qualified professionals, and be able to locate dental records if necessary.
7. Instruct your child's school to notify you immediately if your child is absent. Inform the principal who is authorized to pick your child up from school. Try to have the same person every day.
8. Alert your child to the many tactics used by possible abductors to lure children away with them. Ad-advise them how to respond in these situations. It is best to ignore these dangerous people.

Check your child's route to and from school. Call attention to any dangerous spots, such as vacant lots, alleyways, etc. Advise them what to do if a strange person follows or approaches them.

Encourage neighbors to participate in a "safe home" program. Establish safe homes where children can go for help.

THE SOCIALITES...

By Butler Webb

---

SPRING SEASON BEGINS--- Socialites are going over the major events on the spring calendar, but in Newark many of these events involve political society because of the city, county and national campaigns.

The March 8 convention at Rutgers-Newark saw political socialites on the scene, so did they appear at Candidates' Night by the North Warders at Forest Hills Presbyterian Church on Heller Parkway and the salute to Fran Aduvato, North Ward Council candidate on March 5 at Biases...plus announcement for the mayoralty by Rev. Oliver Brown of the Newark Board of Education and Earl Harris affair last Thursday at 44 Commerce St. in his drive for Councilman at large.

But non-political events are also in the air with the League of Women Voters of Newark honors ceremony at the Essex County Park Headquarters on Clifton Ave. March 8, with reception by Louise Epperson April 26 at the New Marriott for music leaguers of the churches.

Again political society will be present at Dr. Ralph T. Grant's annual Palm Sunday Breakfast, chaired by Sandra Coombe at Quality Inn March 22.

This last reminds us of Grant's position as a socialite in both societies, political and non-political. His role in the March 8 political convention at Rutgers-Newark can be seen in the following analysis of that convention:

The Rev. OLIVER BROWN threw his hat in the ring for Newark mayor last week. This makes eight candidates for that post, with KENNETH GIBSON the favorite, as many believe he is unbeatable. Dr. COLUMBUS SALLEY received wild applause at the Gibson breakfast at New Marriott when he was introduced. He seeks election as councilman from the South Ward. features a scramble this year because heavy hitter SHARPE JAMES is out of that council race, since he is challenging Gibson for the mayor spot.

Dr. ROGER FIELDS, the moneyman, is planning a visit to Africa where he will study means to make soil arable for the starving peoples of Ethiopia. He told LORRAINE LAVENDER during an interview that his argument with EULICE HONEY WARD at Larry W. Stalks recent rally in Scott's Manor was based on his declining to support Larrie's son, STEPHEN STALKS, in the Central Ward Council race. Soon we may reveal the contents of the will of the late WALTER T. DARDEN of Montclair, who is believed to have left a large estate. Former Montclair Mayor MATTHEW CARTER presided at Darden's massive funeral at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Montclair. Darden made much money from his various investments, including the big housing project adjacent to his Montclair mansion. His wife was slain some years ago by thieves.

HARRY GEORGE WEBBER, son of H.B., sent for his daughter URSULA WEBBER to join him in Los Angeles where he has established his own advertising agency with a partner. Ursula left last week on a Continental flight to her father who is making a place for her in the agency.

Former East Orange mayor WILLIAM S. HART has been named as a successor to County Exec PETER SHAPIRO, former Superior Court Judge HERBERT TATE is still hospitalized at Clara Maas. LORRAINE LAVENDER is making plans for a salutation to TINY PRINCE, After Hours publisher in the spring. Lavender also interviews Dr. ROGER D. FIELDS, the money man who finances small business and local political campaigns. She covered the recent affair of LARRIE WEST STALKS at Scott's and heard the argument between Fields and Eulice Honey Ward. Fields told her Ward was annoyed because Fields refused to back STEPHEN STALKS for City Council from the Central Ward. Fields indicated he was for Dr. RALPH T. GRANT. Fields also said he plans to visit Africa.

The country Democratic organization is annoyed at the reign of Exec PETER SHAPIRO because he ran for governor and sustained a crushing defeat.
